

WoW

WoW is Wildwood Program's band so to speak. It is open to all members of the Wildwood community and debuted as The Gong Show House Band for staff day 2004. Since then, they have performed at numerous family fun nights and jam every Friday afternoon after work to destress and share some songs.

John Rafalak was a founding member of WoW and also created their logo. John could play any song on drums/percussion/vibes, from classical to rock and roll. He is truly missed by his bandmates and WoW's music will be dedicated to John for Wildwoodstock.

The sounds of WoW are as eclectic as its members—Mark Ahola, Joel Hamil, Jason Ingraham, Amy Myers, Tom Schreck, Bill Sofko, and Jill Weinisch. If you play a mean tambourine and work at Wildwood, we may add you to the list! Meanwhile, come hear WoW as they undergo their heady mission of getting WILDWOODstock rockin'? After you hear them, you gotta say WoW!

John Rafalak